Aims

The investment strategy of the fund is to purchase units in the LF Prudential Dynamic 40-80 Portfolio. That portfolio aims to achieve long-term total return (the combination of income and growth of capital). It is an actively managed portfolio investing mainly in collective investment schemes in order to provide a well-diversified exposure to global equities, fixed income and variable rate assets, immovable property and/or cash, deposits, warrants and money market instruments. Typically the portfolio will have a bias towards assets providing potential for growth, such as equities, with between 40% and 80% of the portfolio being invested in schemes whose predominant exposure is to equities.
