This document contains information based on the MSCI World Small Cap Index. The MSCI World Small-Cap Index is a free float-adjusted market capitalization index that is designed to measure small-cap equity performance in the global developed markets. The Index targets 40% of the eligible small-cap universe as all listed securities with a market capitalization in the range of USD200-1,500 million. Prior to November 1, 2006, performance data for the MSCI Index was calculated gross of dividend tax withholding. Performance data presently shown for the Index is net of dividend tax withholding. This recalculation results in lower performance for the Index. It is not possible to invest directly in an Index.
