Market review

Equities made impressive gains over the period under review with a firmer response to the sovereign debt crisis from the authorities reassuring investors. This performance contrasted sharply with the lacklustre economic backdrop in the UK and Europe where growth prospects we revised steadily downwards. Fears over the extent of the slowdown in China's economy eased however and there were some positive signs in the US with consumer spending and the housing market picking up. Investment grade bonds made modest progress and high yield bonds made reasonable gains. Returns from core government bonds were subdued by comparison.

Fund activity

Although we remain cautious towards Europe overall, we felt comfortable with slightly increasing our exposure to the region following the ECB's firm commitment to supporting the eurozone. We added to a number of our existing positions but sold Neptune European Opportunities and reinvested the proceeds into BlackRock European Dynamic – a fund with a strong long-term track record that has successfully managed to navigate the eurozone crisis.

Although the portfolio is heavily biased towards equities, we have maintained some exposure to fixed income investments. Both Old Mutual Global Strategic Bond and Legg Mason Global Credit Absolute Return are flexibly managed portfolios – the latter an absolute return fund aiming to deliver in all market conditions.

We increased our exposure to Japanese equities later on in the period on the view that the new government was likely to be more aggressive in tackling the country's economic problems.

In the US we sold JCF Janus US All Cap Growth following changes to the manager and process adopted and bought into Polar Capital North American. The latter targets meaningful outperformance of the US stock market through a conviction based approach – one that can be more adaptive than those run in a benchmark driven manner. Investing in between 40-60 holdings stock selection is the key determinant of portfolio composition with an emphasis on attractively valued high quality companies.

Market outlook

The debt crisis is far from over, but with authorities making a more concerted and meaningful effort to deal with the situation, many of the associated risks have eased. We are positive on the outlook for equities relative to other asset classes as shares should benefit if – as we anticipate – economic growth picks up later this year. Prospects for fixed income however, are more subdued. Geographically we favour the US and Asia and are neutrally positioned towards the UK and emerging markets.

Risk Profile:

Emerging Markets Risk: this Fund invests in emerging markets which are less developed and have additional legal and political risks.

Credit Risk: receiving income due from debt instruments is dependant upon the provider's ability to pay.

Fixed Interest Securities Risk: changes in interest rates can affect the value of fixed interest holdings.

Smaller Companies Risk: smaller companies carry a higher degree of risk and their value can be more sensitive to market movement.

Currency Risk: your investment may be adversely affected by changes in currency exchange rates.

Liquidity Risk: the ability to buy and sell assets at a favourable price may be affected by a low level of counterparties willing to enter into a transaction with the Fund.

Derivative Risk: derivative values rise and fall at a greater rate than equities and debt instruments. Losses can be greater than the initial investment.
