ACD'S REPORT FOR THE HALF YEAR ENDED 30 JUNE 2013

AUTHORISED STATUS

CF Odey Investment Funds ('the Company') is an investment company with variable capital incorporated in England and Wales under the registered number IC000176 and authorised by the Financial Services Authority (note that the Financial Services Authority was replaced by the Financial Conduct Authority on 1 April 2013) with effect from 17 May 2002.

It is a 'UCITS Scheme' which complies with the COLL Sourcebook and the currency of the Company and each sub-fund is pounds sterling.

Shareholders are not liable for the debts of the Company. A shareholder is not liable to make any further payment to the Company after they have paid the price on purchase of the shares.

As a sub-fund is not a legal entity, if the assets of one sub-fund are insufficient to meet the liabilities attributable to it, the ACD may re-allocate such liabilities between the sub-funds then in existence in a manner which is fair to shareholders generally. This re-allocation will normally be performed on the basis of the respective net asset values of the sub-funds.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

On 19 February 2013 two new share classes, 'R' Income and 'R' Accumulation, were launched in CF Odey Atlas Fund.

DIRECTOR'S STATEMENT

This report has been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Collective Investment Schemes Sourcebook as issued and amended by the Financial Conduct Authority.

CF ODEY CONTINENTAL EUROPEAN FUND ACD'S REPORT

FOR THE HALF YEAR ENDED 30 JUNE 2013

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND POLICY

The investment objective of the CF Odey Continental European Fund ('the Fund') is to achieve long term capital appreciation through investing primarily in quoted securities issued by companies with principal offices in Continental Europe and the normal policy of the Fund is to invest in a broad spread of equities but the Fund may also invest in government bonds, other fixed interest securities and preferred stocks if in the opinion of the ACD and the Investment Manager this is appropriate to the goal of maximising capital growth.

There will be no predetermined orientation towards or emphasis on any particular industrial or economic sector. The Investment Manager may avail himself of those currency hedging and EPM facilities available within the Regulations.

MSCI Daily Total Return Net Europe Ex UK USD (converted to GBP) will be the benchmark comparison against which the Fund's performance is measured.

INVESTMENT MANAGER REPORT

Have you heard? There is a stealth bull market in European equities underway. From its June 2012 lows, MSCI Europe is up 27%. The CF Odey Continental European Fund is up some 38% from that point. After five years of economic downturn, stabilisation is in progress and recovery beckons for the euro bloc, albeit slowly. This healing process is most clearly evidenced in the UK, where GDP estimates are on the up and have been raised to +1.9% for 2014. Encouragingly some of the most depressed areas and industries in Europe, such as the TV advertising market in Spain, have started to record rates of improvement. A market dynamic that could only be described as 'tempestuous' twelve months ago, now looks more 'temperate with some chances of light showers.' This bodes well for Antena 3 (Atresmedia Corporation), our Spanish media holding, which through rapid market consolidation at the tail end of 2012 now finds itself operating in a duopoly – a situation which tends to favour shareholder returns. A brief exercise in compare and contrast reveals the upside: an investor pays 3x Sales for ITV which operates at peak margins in a four-player market, versus 1.8x sales for Antena 3, which suffers depressed sales and profits in a now improving two-player market. The roadmap for upside here is clear and compelling. It is a story that is analogous with so many of our holdings. The key thematic is the hunt for companies that have weathered and thrived in the winter of Europe at a time when end demand has been decimated. Now, as sunshine approaches, they are set to grow profits dramatically, from housebuilders to airlines and aerospace. Consolidation has left the strongest assets with much more lucrative moats.

The merits of Europe stand out particularly against other geographic regions. Emerging markets, once synonymous with growth, look particularly inauspicious. Witness the "Shibo" incident of last month, where a brief withdrawal of state-backed liquidity from the Chinese banking system, revealed in short order those institutions swimming too far from shore. Evidence of financial discomfort and proof of an overstretched shadow banking system were manifest as 3-month Chinese interbank borrowing rates (SHIBOR) soared 40% in a week. Indeed tightening money supply, falling growth, rising bond yields and a strong dollar are rarely a welcome combination for emerging markets. Foreign Exchange movements have been front and centre of this debate, with dramatic falls in currencies such as the Aussie dollar totemic of the increasing fragility facing emerging markets capital flows.

By comparison European economies now look merrily sedate and this will help attract displaced capital back to the region and back into equities as the hunger for yield continues to exert itself.

What of tapering? A topic that seems to change almost daily, with the Federal Reserve following the Grand Old Duke of York model of market communication: marching them up to the top of the hill before marching them down again. My view is that rising bond yields are not equity-unfriendly. Indeed a steepening yield curve presages recovery and earnings growth. This is usually good news for investors. However the start of the rate cycle typically sees the baton of equity performance pass from the phenomenon of re-rating to that of accelerating earnings growth. A reliance on multiple expansion, as per 2012, for equity markets to make progress will no longer be enough. Earnings accretion becomes the imperative. This is the time for stock-pickers. Whilst the High Priests of High Quality continue to buy Nestle at whatever the price and regardless of weaker emerging market growth, record valuations and querulous questions from bond markets. To my mind this is yesterday's bull market. The new champions of Europe are cyclically improving, structurally privileged and cheaply valued: that's our playbook... Ryanair, Howden Joinery, Sky Deutschland, Sports Direct. This stealth bull market in Europe has a lot more left to run.

SYNTHETIC RISK AND REWARD INDICATOR

This indicator shows how much a fund has risen and fallen in the past, and therefore how much a fund's returns have varied. It is a measure of a fund's volatility. The higher a fund's past volatility the higher the number on the scale and the greater the risk that investors in that fund may have made losses as well as gains. The lowest number on the scale does not mean that a fund is risk free.

The Fund has been classed as 6 because its volatility has been measured as above average to high.

This indicator is based on historical data and may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of this Fund.

The risk and reward profile shown is not guaranteed to remain the same and may shift over time.

CF ODEY OPUS FUND ACD'S REPORT

FOR THE HALF YEAR ENDED 30 JUNE 2013

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND POLICY

The investment objective of the CF Odey Opus Fund ('the Fund') is to achieve long term capital growth primarily through investment in quoted equity and fixed interest stocks throughout the world.

MSCI World Net Total Return Index (converted to GBP) will be the benchmark comparison against which the Fund's performance is measured.

INVESTMENT BORROWING POWERS

As at 30 June 2013 there was an inadvertent breach of COLL 5.2.11(3). Cash with a single counterparty exceeded 20% of the Fund's net asset value.

CAPITA FINANCIAL MANAGERS LIMITED ACD of CF Odey Investment Funds 28 August 2013

INVESTMENT MANAGER'S REPORT

SUMMARY OF PERFORMANCE FOR THE 6 MONTH PERIOD ENDING 30 JUNE 2013 In the first half of 2013 to 28 June, the Fund returned +16.5% against a MSCI World Index return of +16.0%*. Positive performance during this period came from holdings in Sky Deutschland AG

(+1.64%), Pendragon Plc (+1.22%) and Barclays Plc (+1.09%). Whilst Mitsubishi Estate Co Ltd (-0.30%), Tesoro Corp (-0.24%) and Orix Corp (-0.23%) all disappointed.

INVESTMENT MANAGER REPORT

Well it was anything but sweet dreams. 22 May marked the beginning of a veritable sell-off in bonds, EM currencies and stockmarkets, as Bernanke initially seemed to be pressing hard the idea that a tapering of Quantitative Easing ('QE') would be happening as early as the autumn. Since then there has been backtracking. Stockmarkets have risen and bond markets have caught some kind of a bid, but whether we can ever enjoy again 'glad confident mornings' is still to be seen.

Ending QE was always going to be the difficult bit and for the first time it will not be the politicians that are held to account for the consequences but the Central Bankers. Like the game of hearts where hearts cannot be led until someone has thrown one away, now that Bernanke has "thrown away QE", it is open season. Strong numbers out of the USA will now mean that long rates should normalise – that means that long bond holders could lose 20% from here. For us this new Bernanke cannot be trusted to take us painlessly to the promised land.

Currently, the backing up in rates does not threaten the recovery in house building in the USA. Houses are still 30% more affordable than they have been on average over the last 25 years. Car sales also point to a stronger second half in the USA for the economy and so our cyclical stance in the USA has been rewarded recently.

Part of our enthusiasm reflects how the US authorities continue to be accommodating to companies increasing their market share and gaining greater pricing power. Very unlike Europe, where regulators remain rather too vigilant in discouraging concentration. However, Europe is starting to enjoy some sort of recovery. Orders are picking up.

Elsewhere the news is reasonably bleak. Latin America falls further into demagogic gangsterism and smouldering insurrection.

China is in the midst of deregulating its financial and energy sectors and for now is less interested in growth. Japan has responded to Chinese militaristic aggression by instigating a currency war, which is great for Japanese profits, but must lead to reciprocating aggression from its major trading partners. We shall just have to see.

However, whereas the storyline was that Bernanke was going to lead the USA into an inflationary but effective recovery and let real interest rates fall unknowingly, now this recovery may be met with more hostile activity from the Federal Reserve. Having had both a sell off and a recovery, markets will at best be quiet. The increased uncertainty is reflected by less leverage in the hedge funds and higher cash levels in the long books.

One is aware that he who whispers the words must whisper the music too!

SYNTHETIC RISK AND REWARD INDICATOR

Typically lower rewards Typically higher			rewards
Lower	risk		Higher risk			gher risk
1	1 2 3 4 5 6					7

This indicator shows how much a fund has risen and fallen in the past, and therefore how much a fund's returns have varied. It is a measure of a fund's volatility. The higher a fund's past volatility the higher the number on the scale and the greater the risk that investors in that fund may have made losses as well as gains. The lowest number on the scale does not mean that a fund is risk free.

The Fund has been classed as 6 because its volatility has been measured as above average to high.

This indicator is based on historical data and may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of this Fund.

The risk and reward profile shown is not guaranteed to remain the same and may shift over time.

CF ODEY ATLAS FUND ACD'S REPORT FOR THE HALF YEAR ENDED 30 JUNE 2013

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

On 19 February 2013 new share classes, 'R' Income and 'R' Accumulation, were launched.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND POLICY

The investment objective of the CF Odey Atlas Fund ('the Fund') is to achieve long term capital growth, through an actively managed investment approach.

The Fund will invest generally in equities anywhere in the world.

The Fund may, in addition, invest in other transferable securities, including debt instruments and warrants. The Fund may gain exposure to commodities through investing in transferable securities in the commodities sector such as exchange traded commodities.

The Fund may also invest up to 10% of the value of its scheme property in collective investment schemes.

The Fund may hold derivatives for efficient portfolio management purposes. It is not intended that the use of derivatives for efficient portfolio management purposes will increase the risk profile of the Fund.

MSCI World Net Total Return Index (converted to GBP) will be the benchmark comparison against which the Fund's performance is measured.

INVESTMENT MANAGER'S REPORT

SUMMARY OF PERFORMANCE FOR THE 6 MONTH PERIOD ENDING 30 JUNE 2013 In the first half of 2013 to 28 June, the Fund returned +12.4%* against a MSCI Daily TR Net return +16.2%. Positive performance for the period came from holdings in Koninklijke KPN N.V. (+1.53%), Ocado Group Plc (+1.45%) and Ryanair Holdings Plc (+1.14%). Whilst Louisiana-Pacific Corp (-1.05%), Athabasca Oil Corp (-0.42%) and Volkswagen AG (-0.35%*) all disappointed.

INVESTMENT MANAGER REPORT

"Although the Committee left the pace of purchases [Quantitative Easing] unchanged ... it has stated that it may vary the pace of purchases as economic conditions evolve. Any such change would reflect the incoming data and their implications for the outlook, as well as the cumulative progress made toward the Committee's objectives" – Ben Bernanke, 19 June 2013.

Bernanke announced that when the economic environment returns to a more normal level then Quantitative Easing will be reduced. The market's reaction has been to continue falling from its highs in May, but we question how justified this is given the facts at hand.

The market correction is a logical short term reaction. Bernanke has reduced the 'Bernanke Put' i.e. the perpetual monetary support for the market. As a result, bond yields have risen and uncertainty has increased. Both of these should, in isolation, lead to a de-rating of equity markets. However this statement gives us an insight into the Federal Reserve's ('the Fed') expectation for near term economic data – they expect it to be strong. So with no actual change in the economic or earnings outlook, the recent stock market fall appears logical but, once you factor in the strong economic outlook which is being implied, it is clear that equities could soon undo the damage done.

In the longer term the Fed is clearly committed to easy monetary policy until the economy is on a path of sustainable growth. We already know that the Fed deems high house prices and stock markets as a necessary condition for sustainable growth and, once sustainable growth is in evidence, sustainable stock market gains should follow. So in either eventuality shares should rise or at least be supported as a result of central bank action.

Bernanke has introduced a dose of volatility, partially deliberately and partially through poor communication. He continues to walk a tightrope, with us on his shoulders, trying to reach the 'other side' of this crisis. While he has lowered the safety net a little, this is only because he is increasingly confident of a successful outcome. We still see no reason to meaningfully reduce our equity holdings, and expect economic data to improve over the summer to support this view.

SYNTHETIC RISK AND REWARD INDICATOR

Typically lower rewards			Тур	ically higher	rewards
Lower ri	isk				Hig	gher risk
1	2	3	4	5	6	7

This indicator shows how much a fund has risen and fallen in the past, and therefore how much a fund's returns have varied. It is a measure of a fund's volatility. The higher a fund's past volatility the higher the number on the scale and the greater the risk that investors in that fund may have made losses as well as gains. The lowest number on the scale does not mean that a fund is risk free.

The Fund has been classed as 6 because its volatility has been measured as above average to high.

This indicator is based on historical data and may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of this Fund.

The risk and reward profile shown is not guaranteed to remain the same and may shift over time.
