Fund Overview

The FP CRUX UK Special Situations Fund is a concentrated, all market cap Fund with a bias towards mid cap stocks, and the opportunity for 20% investment outside the UK. The FP CRUX UK Special Situations Fund identifies high quality businesses with low levels of debt, run by strong management teams, where the business has an economic advantage with the potential for high returns on capital and growth. The Fund aims to achieve long-term capital growth through bottom up stock picking.

The manager views a special situation as a company attractively valued relative to its assets or future earning potential. The Fund's investment philosophy is based around the following principles:

- Fund manager co-invested on the same terms as investors
- A concentrated portfolio
- High conviction
- A fundamentally value driven investment
- A size bias towards the mid and small cap, however taking into consideration the FTSE 100 as well

We believe, over time these principles will provide sources of alpha, contributing to returns allowing the opportunity to find companies that fit the FP CRUX UK Special Situations Fund process.
