We may share your personal information:

- With the Aviva Group, our agents and third parties who provide services to us to help us administer our products and services;

Some of the organisations we share information with directly or indirectly may be located outside of the European Economic Area ("EEA"). We need to keep information for the period necessary to administer your investment and deal with any queries on your investment. We may also need to keep information after our relationship with you has ended, for example to ensure we have an accurate record in the event of any complaints or challenges, carry out relevant fraud checks, or where we are required to do so for legal, regulatory or tax purposes.

5. PREVENTION OF MONEY LAUNDERING

In accordance with EU and UK legislation relating to the prevention of money laundering we are obliged to verify the identity and address of all parties to this contract (e.g. planholder, third parties including beneficial owners). In the case of legal arrangements we are also required to establish the identity of any controllers that are not named parties as well as individuals who have a specified beneficial interest in the contract.

Where a financial adviser or Aviva Investors Representative is involved they will let you know what evidence you need to produce. If you are applying to us direct we will verify your identity with a third party identity verification company. In certain circumstances you may be required to provide further evidence of your identity and confirmation of address, in which case Aviva Investors will contact you. If the product you are applying for allows payment by cheque and you wish to pay with a Building Society cheque or Bankers Draft, the Society or Bank must endorse the cheque with the full name of the person whose account from which the funds are drawn.

6. DELIVERY VERSUS PAYMENT (DVP) EXEMPTION

We may make use of the Delivery versus Payment (DVP) exemption for Collective Investment Schemes as defined in the Financial Conduct Authority's Client Assets Sourcebook. This means your uninvested money may not be protected if Aviva Investors UK Fund Services Limited becomes insolvent during the period covered by the exemption.

There are no circumstances under which you should pay money into Aviva Investors UK Fund Services Limited's own bank accounts in relation to your Aviva Investors Cash Fund ISA and we will not ask you to do so. However, in the event that we do receive money from you directly into these accounts, the DVP exemption will be used and any money we receive from you into those accounts may not be protected from the day we receive it to the close of the next business day. We will not use the DVP exemption for any payments received from you by cheque, Direct Debit or debit card and therefore these payments will be protected at all times.

The DVP exemption will also be used when we make payments to you by bank transfer (TT, CHAPs or Direct Credit). When this happens your money may not be protected from the start of the day we are due to make the payment to you up to the end of the next business day. We will not use the DVP exemption for any payments we make to you by cheque and therefore these payments will be protected at all times.
