Prudential Risk Rating

Medium to Higher Risk

These funds offer a diverse geographical spread of equity investment or have multi-asset strategies with a specialist focus (e.g. ethical). The equity funds within this category will have greater overseas exposure and underlying volatility than the "medium" sector.

These risk ratings have been developed by Prudential to help provide an indication of a fund's potential level of risk and reward based on the type of assets which may be held by the fund. Other companies may use different descriptions and as such these risk ratings should not be considered as generic across the fund management industry.

We regularly review our fund risk ratings, so they may change in the future. If, in our view, there is a material change in the fund's level of risk, for example due to a significant change to the assets held by the fund or in the way the fund is managed, we will provide information on the new risk rating. We recommend that you make sure you understand the risk rating of any fund before you invest.

You should also consider discussing your decision and the appropriateness of a fund's risk rating with an adviser.

Important Information

- Because of changes in exchange rates the value of your investment, as well as any money you take from it, can go down as well as up.
- Some funds may invest in 'underlying' funds or other investment vehicles. The performance of our fund, compared to what it's invested in won't be exactly the same. That can be due to additional charges, cash management (needed to help people to enter and leave our fund when they want), tax and the timing of investments (this is known as a fund's dealing cycle, it varies between managers and can be several days).

The figures shown are intended only to demonstrate performance history of the fund, after allowing for the impact of fund charges and further costs, but take no account of any Annual Management Charge paid for by the deduction of units. Charges and further costs may vary in the future and may be higher than they are now. Fund performance is based upon the movement of the daily price and is shown as total return in GBP with gross income reinvested. The value of your investment can go down as well as up so you might get back less than you put in.

Commentary

Performance as at Q1 2022 - In a challenging quarter, investor sentiment was heavily affected by two main themes: Russia's invasion of Ukraine and global inflationary fears. Many goods and services have experienced price rises over the past year, a global trend that has been exacerbated by the conflict in Ukraine.

Equities were predominately weak although the UK stockmarket was flat over the quarter owing to its exposure to commodities. The Ukraine war sent prices in energy markets and other key commodity markets soaring as production shutdowns and international sanctions began to hit the Russian economy. Europe and emerging markets were among the worst performers, with sentiment here affected by COVID-19-related lockdowns as well as these markets' proximity and economic ties to Ukraine/Russia. Meanwhile, Japan, Pacific markets and the US recorded more modest declines, all in sterling terms.

The fund declined and ended the quarter behind the benchmark and ahead of the comparator. The fund's relative performance was supported by stock selection in most markets, led by stock picks in emerging markets, Europe, Pacific markets, and more modestly Japan and the US, while selection in the UK held back relative returns.
