

HSBC ETFs PLC

HSBC NASDAQ GLOBAL SEMICONDUCTOR UCITS ETF

Monthly report 31 May 2022 | HNSC LN

Investment objective

The Fund aims to track as closely as possible the returns of the Nasdaq Global Semiconductor Index (the Index). The Fund will invest in, or gain exposure to, shares of companies which make up the Index.

Investment strategy

The Index is a subset of the Nasdaq Global Index (Parent Index) and measures the performance of the 80 largest global semiconductor companies. The Index is a modified market capitalisation-weighted index and applies issuer exposure capping. The Fund is passively managed and aims to invest in the shares of the companies in generally the same proportion as in the Index. There may be circumstances when it is not possible or practical for the Fund to invest in all constituents of the Index. The Fund may invest more than 20% of its assets in issuers based in emerging markets and may invest in China A-shares either directly or indirectly through China A-shares Access Products (CAAP). The Fund may invest up to 10% in total return swaps and may invest up to 10% in other funds, including HSBC funds. See the Prospectus for a full description of the investment objectives and derivative usage.

Main risks

- The value of investible securities can change over time due to a wide variety of factors, including but not limited to: political and economic news, government policy, changes in demographics, cultures and populations, natural or human-caused disasters etc.
- The Fund may be concentrated in a limited number of securities, economic sectors and/or countries and as a result, may be more volatile and have a greater risk of loss than more broadly diversified funds.
- To the extent that the Fund seeks to replicate index performance by holding individual securities, there is no guarantee that its composition or performance will exactly match that of the target index at any given time ("tracking error").

Risk disclosures

- Derivatives may be used by the Fund, and these can behave unexpectedly. The pricing and volatility of many derivatives may diverge from strictly reflecting the pricing or volatility of their underlying reference(s), instrument or asset.
- Investment Leverage occurs when the economic exposure is greater than the amount invested, such as when derivatives are used. A Fund that employs leverage may experience greater gains and/or losses due to the amplification effect from a movement in the price of the reference source.
- Further information on the potential risks can be found in the Key Investor Information Document (KID) and/or the Prospectus or Offering Memorandum.
