Glossary

Accumulation Share Class - A share class that automatically reinvests its income back into the fund. This can include dividends from shares or interest from bonds.

ACD (Authorised Corporate Director) - An ACD is the organisation responsible for carrying out the management functions of an Investment Company with Variable Capital (ICVC). This includes fund oversight, valuations and dealing, fund accounting and administration.

Asset Allocation - An investment strategy that apportions different weightings to asset classes seeking diversification and balancing risk and reward.

Base Currency - The accounting currency of the fund and the one in which its performance is quoted, and financial reports are prepared.

Benchmark - A standard (usually an index) that reflects a fund's investable universe against which its performance is measured.

Derivative - A financial asset, the price and performance of which is based on (derived from) the value of a reference investment.

Distribution Policy - The frequency at which income is distributed from the fund.

Entry Charge - An upfront cost paid when investing money in a fund that is deducted from the initial investment.

Equity - A share in the ownership of a company that is usually (but not necessarily) listed on a stock exchange.

Exit Charge - A fee charged to investors when they sell their shares in a fund.

Fixed Income (Securities) - Securities such as bonds from which the holder receives a predetermined rate interest pattern on the par value, (the initial amount lent by the investor).

Historical Yield - The fund's total income payments over the previous 12 months expressed as a percentage of the fund's price as at the last month end.

Income Shares - A share class that pays out any income received from the underlying securities. This can include dividends from shares and interest from bonds.

Investment Objective - The fund's investment goal as stated in the prospectus.

Key Investor Information Document (KIID) - A two-page document that sets out key information about a fund, including the fund's investment objective and policy, key risks, ongoing charges figure, and past performance.

Multi-Manager - A multi-manager fund offers investors access to a range of manager styles and skills. This can mean investing in a range of different funds, or hiring a range of investment managers to invest the assets of a fund on the ACD's behalf.

Net Asset Value (NAV) - The value that would be achieved if all the fund's assets were sold and all income owed had been received, and once all its debts and other obligations were paid off.

Ongoing Charges Figure (OCF) - The OCF represents the total fee that an investor pays to cover the running costs of a fund. The OCF is shown as a percentage of a fund's average net asset value over the preceding twelve months. It comprises an annual management charge (AMC) and other operating costs. The AMC is levied by the ACD and is used to pay the investment manager and investment advisers. Other operating costs paid for by the fund which include depositary fees, custodian fees, transfer agency costs, audit costs and regulatory fees. The OCF does not include trading costs such as stamp duty and broker commissions.

Relative Return - The return an asset achieved over a specified period, when compared to a benchmark. This measure is expressed as a percentage of over or underperformance..

Returns (Cumulative) - Total return of an investment over a stated period of time as a flat percentage. .

Share Class - A fund can have different share classes. These classes can vary by the type of investor they are designed for, and whether they accumulate or distribute income. Share classes will typically have different ongoing charges figures.

Synthetic Risk & Reward Indicator (SRRI) - A scale designed to help investors understand the potential risk and return characteristics of a fund. It is calculated using a defined formula based on the how variable its historical returns have been. The SRRI is presented as a numerical value on a scale of 1 to 7 with 1 representing the lowest relative risk and 7 the highest relative risk.

Sub-Advisers - A specialist investment manager hired by the adviser to manage a proportion of the fund. This approach seeks to select the most suitable investment managers, with a range of complementary investment styles, to achieve the objectives of the fund. It seeks to diversify risk and optimise returns by providing access to a wide spectrum of managers - some of which may not normally be available to individual investors.

Yield - The annual dividend or income on an investment expressed as a percentage of the purchase price.
