Investment policy: The Sub-Fund pursues an actively-managed investment strategy.
Investment approach <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Invests primarily in investment grade, U.S. Dollar-denominated, short term fixed, variable and floating rate debt securities.• Actively manages credit and duration exposure and targets a duration of one year or less.• Selects individual securities after performing a risk/reward analysis that includes an evaluation of their characteristics including income, interest rate risk, credit risk, ESG profile and legal and technical structure.• Applies values and norms based screening and implements minimum investment thresholds on companies with positive ESG characteristics.
Investor profile: Typical investors in the Sub-Fund are expected to be investors who want to take broad market exposure to short duration debt securities and who are looking for potentially higher returns than a money market fund and are prepared to incur a higher level of risk in order to achieve this, including the volatility of investments in such debt securities.

Key risks

The value of your investment may fall as well as rise and you may get back less than you originally invested.

The value of debt securities may change significantly depending on economic and interest rate conditions as well as the credit worthiness of the issuer. Issuers of debt securities may fail to meet payment obligations or the credit rating of debt securities may be downgraded. These risks are typically increased for below investment grade debt securities which may also be subject to higher volatility and lower liquidity than investment grade debt securities. The credit worthiness of unrated debt securities is not measured by reference to an independent credit rating agency.

Asset-backed, collateralised loan obligations and mortgage-backed securities may be less liquid than other securities in which the Sub-Fund will invest, subject to adverse changes to interest rates and to the risk that the payment obligations relating to the underlying assets are not met.

Exclusion of issuers that do not meet certain ESG criteria from the Sub-Fund's investment universe may cause the Sub-Fund to perform differently compared to similar funds that do not have such a policy. The Sub-Fund may be concentrated in the banking industry and in the US sectors, markets and/or currency. As a result, the Sub-Fund may be more volatile than more broadly diversified funds.

Further information about risks can be found in the "Risk Information" section of the Prospectus.

Definitions

NAV Net Asset Value of a fund's assets less its liabilities per Share.

Correlation measures the strength and direction of the relationship between movements in fund and benchmark returns. A correlation of 1.00 indicates that fund and benchmark returns move in lockstep in the same direction.

Alpha (%) a measure of excess return generated by a manager compared to the benchmark. An alpha of 1.00 indicates that a fund has outperformed its benchmark by 1%.

Beta measures a fund's sensitivity to market movements (as represented by the fund's benchmark). A beta of 1.10 suggests the fund could perform 10% better than the benchmark in up markets and 10% worse in down markets, assuming all other factors remain constant. Usually the higher betas represent riskier investments.

Annualised volatility (%) measures the extent to which returns vary up and down over a given period.

Sharpe ratio performance of an investment adjusting for the amount of risk taken (compared a risk-free investment). The higher the Sharpe ratio the better the returns compared to the risk taken.

Tracking error (%) measures how much a fund's returns deviate from those of the benchmark. The lower the number the closer the fund's historic performance has followed its benchmark.

Information ratio measures if a manager is outperforming or underperforming the benchmark and accounts for the risk taken to achieve the returns. A manager who outperforms a benchmark by 2% p.a. will have a higher IR than a manager with the same outperformance but who takes more risk.
