SUB-FUND OVERVIEW

Other:

Name of Sub-fund VT Halo Global Asian Consumer Fund

Size of Sub-fund £66,401,903

Launch date 03 November 2014

Sub-fund objective and policy The investment objective of the VT Halo Global Asian Consumer Fund is to achieve annualised total return of 7 – 11% (after deduction of fees) over 7 years (the length of a typical economic cycle). Capital is in fact at risk and there is no guarantee that a positive return will be achieved over that or any period.

The Sub-fund aims to meet its investment objective by investing primarily (at least 70%) in a portfolio of stocks quoted across the globe that have at least 35% of their revenues or profits coming from emerging markets, with the majority (at least 50%) of the emerging market exposure coming from Asia.

The remainder of the Sub-fund's portfolio may be invested in other collective investment schemes (including those managed and/or advised by the AFM and Investment Manager), shares, bonds, money market instruments, deposits, cash and near cash.

Derivatives (that is sophisticated investment instruments linked to the rise and fall of the price of other assets) may be used for efficient portfolio management purposes. It is expected that use of derivatives will be limited.

There will be no particular emphasis on any industry or economic sector.

No more than 10% of the Sub-Fund's assets can be invested in aggregate in units of other UCITS (as defined in the FCA Handbook) or other collective investment undertakings.

Performance Benchmark: The performance of the Fund can be measured by considering whether the target of achieving annualised total return of 7 - 11% (after deduction of fees) over a 7 year period (the length of a typical economic cycle is achieved).

Market Overview

The Fund's Sterling B accumulation share class fell 1.4% for the 6-month period to 31st December 2023. The Fund struggled to produce positive performance due principally to a stronger economic back drop in the US, resulting in interest rates being higher for longer, leading to money being taken out of Asia and placed in US equity and fixed income markets. This pushed out the timing of interest rates cuts in our Emerging Asian markets who all have interest rates above current rates of inflation. Inflation is now down to within the central banks' target ranges. This combined with the geopolitical risks between the US and China resulted, in a further derating of Asian markets outside of India, Taiwan and Korea, as the perception is ASEAN is reliant on China for its growth, something we disagree with. Our Chinese holdings also continued to derate further as foreigners continued to sell the market every month, even as a number of companies produced positive results, a sign of apathy and disillusion from investors. This negativity towards China by investors, spread to other Asian markets, which also witnessed net outflows during the half year. In particular within ASEAN, Vietnam and the Philippines which account for over 20% of the Fund saw their forward PE multiples fall to just under 2 standard deviations below their long run average, with liquidity in both markets down on previous years.

This derating appears counter intuitive as we continue to see GDP growth for these economies expand at a reasonable rate, with China, Indonesia, Vietnam and Philippines all delivering 5% or higher GDP growth and India will likely be closer to 7%, India being the only market that continued to avoid a PE multiple contraction in the last 6 months. We shall actually most likely see an acceleration in GDP growth for these economies in 2024 and with-it stronger earnings growth, together with bond yields falling and interest rate cuts, this should set us up for a strong 2024.

We did though have a fair amount of activity on the Fund in the last six months as we had a couple of redemptions and we used this to concentrate the portfolio in our high conviction names.

Purchases and Sales

As we had a couple of redemptions during the period, rather than trim all the holdings across the board we chose to raise funds from our lower conviction holdings and bring the number of stocks down from the mid-40s to towards our minimum, being 35 stocks. So, we sold a number of our Chinese holdings where we had concerns over the competitive environment. This was the reason we sold our holdings in Meituan, concerns the competition from Bytedance (Tik Tok) would continue, L'occitane, who were having to increase marketing spend to compete in China and SEA Ltd, again due to competition from Tik Tok ecommerce in their ASEAN markets. We also sold Nagacorp, who have been reliant on Chinese tourists to visit their casino in Phnom Penh, but the tourists had not materialised as expected when China reopened and so the growth we had expected has not come through. We also sold two other Chinese holdings, being Tian Lun Gas, which had 50% of its profits coming from connecting properties to the gas network and with lower property transactions and new builds, this would remain a drag on its business. Lastly Tsingtao Brewery, as demographics are working against the company as the number of beer drinkers is declining and the only way to increase profits in the future was a premiumisation strategy. To be fair this had been working but with slowing consumer spending in China, the risk was this strategy was going to face headwinds and so the stock did not fit our profile of being in a structural growth industry. Lastly, we sold Robinsons Land, the Philippine shopping mall and property company. They have produced very strong results both in 2022 and 2023, with the market constantly having to upgrade forecasts, but the shares themselves continued to derate, with profits up over 50% in the two years, the shares themselves remained broadly unchanged, with the discount to its NAV widening. Liquidity in the stock had halved due to lack of investor interest and we viewed it as likely to continue to remain a value trap for a while, until investor interest returned to the second liners in the Philippines.

We only made one purchase in the period, which was Muangthai Capital, the micro finance lender in Thailand. This is a family run business who lend typically a bit below competitors and focus on service as a key differentiator. This is enabling them to take market share from the unorganised part of the industry, as they open more branches nationally. The valuation has fallen on higher non-performing loans through the covid period, and we now expect lower bad debts, strong lending growth and a high teens earnings trajectory for the next few years.

Outlook

GDP growth for the countries we invest in, will likely demonstrate at least the same growth rates as 2023, or faster, in 2024, driven by investment, accelerating service sector driven by tourism, falling interest rates and rising consumer confidence. This will feed through to decent double-digit earnings growth for our portfolio in calendar 2024. Having seen a derating across all our markets except India in 2023, we expect investors to refocus their attention on Aisa in 2024, as the gap between growth rates in Developed markets and Asian markets widen and investors seek out these better prospects.

INFORMATION FOR INVESTORS

Distribution

Distributions of the revenue of the Company will be made to shareholders on or before 31 August each year.

Taxation

The company will pay no corporation tax on its profits for the period to 31 December 2023 and capital gains within the Company will not be taxed.

Individual shareholders

Income tax: Tax-free annual dividend allowance now standing at £1,000 (2023/24). UK resident shareholders are now subject to new, higher rates of tax on dividend income in excess of the annual allowance. UK resident shareholders are subject to tax on dividend income in excess of the annual allowance.

Capital gains tax: Individual shareholders resident in the UK for tax purposes may be liable to capital gains tax on realisation of their shares as with other chargeable assets. However, the first £6,000 (2023/24) of gains each year are presently tax free for individuals. Gains in excess of that amount are charged at the rate of tax applicable to the individual tax payer.

Corporate shareholders

Companies resident for tax purposes in the UK which hold shares should note that OEIC distributions are streamed into both franked and unfranked income. The unfranked income element will be treated as an annual payment which has been subject to income tax at a rate of 20% and will be liable to tax accordingly. On realisation of their shares, UK resident companies may be liable to pay corporation tax on any capital gains.

The above information on taxation is only a general summary, and shareholders should consult their own tax advisors in relation to their own circumstances. Shareholders should also note that the position as outlined may change to reflect future changes in tax legislation.

Issue and redemption of shares

Valu-Trac Investment Management Limited is the AFM and Registrar. Valu-Trac Investment Management Limited will receive requests for the purchase or sale of shares at any time during 8.30am to 5.30pm. Instructions may be given by email to halo@valu-trac.com or by sending an application form to the Registrar. Application forms are available from the Registrar.

The price of shares will be determined by reference to a valuation of the Company's net assets at 12:00 each business day.

The AFM has the right to reject, on reasonable grounds relating to the circumstances of the applicant, any application for shares in whole or part, and in this event the AFM will return any money sent, or the balance of such monies, at the risk of the applicant.

Any subscription monies remaining after a whole number of shares has been issued will not be returned to the applicant. Instead, smaller denomination shares will be issued in such circumstances.

A contract note giving details of the shares purchased and the price used will be issued by the Registrar by the end of the business day following the valuation point by reference to which the purchase price is determined. Where shares are redeemed, payment will be made not later than the close of business on the fourth business day following the next valuation point after receipt by the AFM of a request for redemption. The AFM may at its discretion accept subscriptions lower than the minimum amount.

The most recent issue and redemption prices are available from the AFM.
