CT (LUX) ENHANCED COMMODITIES (THE "FUND")

Class AGH (GBP Accumulation Hedged Shares) LU0515768884, a sub-fund of Columbia Threadneedle (Lux) I (the "SICAV"), regulated by the CSSF.

The management company of the SICAV is Threadneedle Management Luxembourg S.A. (the "Management Company") (part of the Columbia and Threadneedle group of companies).

Objectives and Investment Policy

- The Fund aims to increase the value of your investment over the long term.
- The Fund invests in commodities using derivatives (complex instruments). Commodities are physical materials such as oil, agricultural products, and metals.
- Derivatives are used to take long positions (which will directly reflect market movements) and short positions (which will respond positively when markets go down) in diversified commodity indices to create under and overweight positions in individual commodities and commodity sectors, as well as alter the location of that weight on the curve. It is not intended that the use of derivatives will result in any net short positions in commodities. The use of derivatives may create leverage. Where leverage is created, the net asset value of the Fund may experience more fluctuation than if there were no leverage. The Fund may also use derivatives for hedging purposes or to manage the Fund more efficiently.
- The Fund may also invest in asset classes and instruments different from those stated above.
- The Fund is actively managed in reference to the Bloomberg Commodity Index. The index is broadly representative of the securities in which the Fund invests, and provides a suitable target benchmark against which Fund performance will be measured and evaluated over time. The fund manager has discretion to select investments with weightings different to the index, and that are not in the index, and the Fund may display significant divergence from the index.
- Income from investments in the Fund will be added to the value of your shares.
- You can buy or sell shares in the Fund on any day which is a business day in Luxembourg unless the directors have decided that insufficient markets are open. You can find more detail on the investment objective and policy of the Fund in the Prospectus. For more information on investment terms used in this document, please see the Glossary available at columbiathreadneedle.com.

Risk and Reward Profile

The Risk and Reward Indicator table demonstrates where the Fund ranks in terms of its potential risk and reward. The higher the rank the greater the potential reward but the greater the risk of losing money. It is based on past data, may change over time and may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Fund. The shaded area in the table below shows the Fund's ranking on the Risk and Reward Indicator.

Lower Risk, Typically lower rewards

Higher Risk, Typically higher rewards

- The Fund is rated 6 because historically it has shown a high level of volatility (how much the value of the Fund goes up and down).
- The lowest category does not mean a risk-free investment.
- The value of investments can fall as well as rise and investors might not get back the sum originally invested.
- Where investments are in assets that are denominated in multiple currencies, or currencies other than your own, changes in exchange rates may affect the value of the investments.
- The Fund may enter into financial transactions with selected counterparties. Any financial difficulties arising at these counterparties could significantly affect the availability and the value of Fund assets.
- The Fund invests in markets where economic and regulatory risk can be significant. These factors can affect liquidity, settlement and asset values. Any such event can have a negative effect on the value of your investment.
- The Fund's assets may sometimes be difficult to value objectively and the actual value may not be recognised until assets are sold.
- The Fund may invest materially in derivatives (complex instruments linked to the rise and fall of the value of other assets). A relatively small change in the value of the underlying investment may have a much larger positive or negative impact on the value of the derivative.
- Leverage occurs when economic exposure through derivatives is greater than the amount invested. Such exposure, and the use of short selling techniques, may lead to the Fund suffering losses in excess of the amount it initially invested.
- The Fund invests in derivatives rather than physical securities. Therefore there is a risk that the price of the instrument does not accurately reflect the price of the underlying security/commodity.
- As the Fund gains exposure to Commodities, it is exposed to factors affecting a particular industry or commodity for example, weather, embargoes, tariffs and international economic, political and regulatory developments and trading activities in commodities and related contracts.
- There is no guarantee that the hedging strategy applied in Hedged Shares will entirely remove the effects of changes in exchange rates between the Base Currency and the currency of the Hedged Shares.
- The risks currently identified as applying to the Fund are set out in the "Risk Factors" section of the Prospectus.
