This document provides you with key investor information about this fund. It is not marketing material. The information is required by law to help you understand the nature and the risks of investing in this fund. You are advised to read it so you can make an informed decision about whether to invest.

Xtrackers Harvest CSI300 UCITS ETF

Share class: 1D, ISIN: LU0875160326, Security code: DBX0NK, Currency: USD

a sub-fund of Xtrackers. The management company is DWS Investment S.A., a member of the DWS Group.

Objectives and investment policy

The fund is passively managed. The aim is for your investment to reflect the performance of the CSI300 Index (index) which reflects the performance of securities of 300 companies listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange (SSE) and the Shenzhen Stock Exchange (SZSE). The index is calculated in onshore Renminbi (CNY). The selection universe of the index includes all A shares and Chinese Depositary Receipts issued by Red-Chip companies listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange or the Shenzhen Stock Exchange, which satisfy certain conditions. The index is reviewed and may be adjusted every 6 months. The index is calculated on a price return basis, which means that the level of the index does not include any dividends and distributions made by the companies. To achieve the aim, the fund will attempt to replicate the index by buying all the securities in the index, either through the Investment Manager's RQFII licence or through the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect and Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect (Stock Connect), which are programmes developed for the purpose of mutual stock market access between SSE and the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (SEHK) and SZSE and SEHK. Where it is not possible to acquire certain constituents of the index due to restrictions or limited availability (e.g. suspension or insufficient liquidity of A shares), the fund will attempt to replicate the index by investing in a portfolio of shares or other eligible assets that comprise a representative sample of the index, or unrelated shares or other eligible assets. The fund may receive income in respect of the securities held by the fund. The fund may employ techniques and instruments in order to manage risk, reduce costs and improve results. These techniques and instruments may include the use of derivatives. The currency of the fund is USD. The fund distributes up to four times per annum. You may request the redemption of shares generally on a daily basis.

Risk and reward profile

The calculation of the risk and reward profile is based on historical data that cannot be used as a reliable indicator for the future risk profile. This risk indicator is subject to changes; the classification of the fund may change over time and cannot be guaranteed. Even a fund that is classified in the lowest category (category 1) does not represent a completely risk-free investment. The fund is classified in category 6 because its share price may fluctuate strongly and the likelihood of both losses and gains may therefore be high. The following risks could be of particular significance for the fund: The fund will attempt to replicate the performance of the index less costs, but your investment is not expected to match the performance of the index precisely. Exceptional circumstances may arise, such as, but not limited to, disruptive market conditions, additional costs/taxes or extremely volatile markets, which may cause the fund's performance to be substantially different from the performance of the index. DWS entities and related companies may act in several roles in relation to the fund such as distributor and management company which may involve conflicts of interest. The fund is not guaranteed and your investment is at risk. The value of your investment may go down as well as up. The index is rules-based and is not capable of being adjusted to take into account changing market circumstances. As a result you may be negatively affected by, or may not benefit from, the lack of such adjustments in changing market circumstances. The fund is exposed to liquidity, operational, clearing, settlement, market suspension and custody risks linked to investments in the People's Republic of China ("PRC"), the RQFII system and the Stock Connect. The fund may suffer difficulties or delays in enforcing its rights in A-shares given the securities regimes in the PRC and Hong Kong are different. The fund and the depositary cannot ensure that the fund's ownership of the securities in the PRC or title thereto is assured in all circumstances. The Board of Directors intends to make relevant provision on dividend and interest from A-shares if the tax on dividends is not withheld at source at the time when such income is received. Any such provision may be excessive or inadequate. Investors may be advantaged or disadvantaged depending on the time they subscribed and/or redeemed their shares. The value of the share class may be affected by currency fluctuations between the currency of the share class and the currency of the investments invested in by the fund. The fund may use derivatives to try to manage its investments more efficiently. This may not always be successful and may result in greater fluctuations in the value of the fund. This may negatively affect the value of the fund and your investment.

A more detailed description of risks and other general information can be found in the risk section(s) of the prospectus.

Charges

The charges you pay are used to pay the costs of running the fund, including the costs of marketing and distributing it. These charges reduce the potential growth of your investment.
