Fidelity China Fund

a sub-fund of Fidelity Investment Funds

Fidelity China Fund W Accumulation Shares
(ISIN:GB00B82ZSC67)

This fund is managed by FIL Investment Services (UK) Limited

Objectives and Investment Policy

Objective: The fund aims to outperform the MSCI China Capped 10% (Net Total Return) Index over a period of 5 years and has the potential to increase the value of your investment.

Investment Policy: The fund will invest at least 80% in companies in Greater China. This region includes countries considered to be emerging markets as determined by the Investment Manager at its sole discretion. The companies will be either listed, incorporated, domiciled, or have significant business activities in the region. The remainder will be invested in companies outside of the region detailed above and in other investment types such as cash and derivatives.

Investment Process: The Investment Manager will, when selecting investments for the fund and for the purposes of monitoring risk, consider the MSCI China Capped 10% Index (Net) and has a limited degree of freedom relative to the index.

Derivatives and Techniques: Derivatives are investments whose value is linked to another investment, or to the performance of a stock exchange or to some other variable factor, such as interest rates and used to reduce risk or transaction costs and/or to generate extra income or further increase the value of your investment.

Additional information: Income earned by the fund is paid into the fund and reflected by an increase in the value of each share. Shares can usually be bought and sold each business day of the fund. The fund's performance can be compared to the MSCI China Capped 10% Index (Net).

Risk and Reward Profile

Historical data may not be a reliable indication for the future.

The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may change over time.

The lowest category does not mean a "risk free" investment.

The risk and reward profile is classified by the level of historical fluctuation of the Net Asset Values of the share class, and within this classification, categories 1-2 indicate a low level of historical fluctuations, 3-5 a medium level and 6-7 a high level.

The value of your investment may fall as well as rise and you may get back less than you originally invested.

The fund may invest in instruments denominated in currencies other than the fund base currency. Changes in currency exchange rates can therefore affect the value of your investment.

This fund is categorised in risk class 7 because, in accordance with the investment policy, the value of the investments may fluctuate considerably. Consequently, both the expected return and the potential risk of loss may be high. Liquidity is a measure of how easily an investment can be converted into cash. Under certain market conditions assets may be more difficult to value or sell at a desired price. This could affect the fund's ability to meet redemptions in a timely manner. Emerging markets may be more volatile and it could be harder to sell or trade securities. There may be less supervision, regulation and less well-defined procedures than in more developed countries. Emerging markets can be sensitive to political instability, which can result in greater volatility and uncertainty, subjecting the fund to the risk of losses.
