

Investment Objective & Strategy

Rockwood Strategic plc (the "Fund") seeks investments capable of delivering 15% IRRs over a 3-5 year time horizon in publicly listed UK Small companies. The strategy targets 5-8 'core' positions with the top 10 holdings represent the majority of NAV and a further 10-25 generally more liquid, smaller investments. We have a 'value' investor mindset, are cash-flow focused, and seek proven businesses and opportunities for strategic, operational or management change to unlock shareholder value. The team adopts an 'engaged' approach with its investments, alongside material shareholdings.

Investment Manager's Commentary

A frustrating quarter occurred as new year optimism waned and the unpredictable, unorthodox and unsettling Trump Presidency got into full swing. A clear change in investor interest emerged with European shares performing and the S&P 500 falling 4.6%. This was the largest quarterly underperformance of US shares to the rest of the world for 23 years. Whilst the FTSE 100 did well, driven to some extent by Banks, U.K small companies remain out of favour. Only 10% of UK goods exports go to the US, equating to 1.9% of GDP. Tariff uncertainty, though, is affecting a soggy economic backdrop and the Chancellor's spring statement did little for confidence, which sadly did not include much needed ISA reform to funnel more investment into publicly listed British companies. There was not a single IPO over £100m. UK interest rates were reduced to 4.5%. We expect further cuts during 2025, possibly at an accelerating pace, which historically has been a catalyst for better UK small companies performance. It will surprise many to find out the AIM All share Index is exactly the same level as March 2020 as Covid hit.

Three holdings did particularly well this quarter. Argentex released a very positive trading statement and announced license wins in Dubai and Australia. It appears the recovery is on track. Filtronic announced a further expansion of their strategic agreement with SpaceX and upgraded profit expectations. Vanquis Banking Group also demonstrated material progress in their recovery and was also bolstered by long over due changes to the regulatory costs of handling (almost always spurious) customer claims, in addition to improving confidence that motor finance redress is a limited risk for the group.

Financial results of a number of our investments showed tangible and significant progress. Due to market conditions, many of the share prices have yet to react to their improved profitability or lower risk profiles. M&C Saatchi's operating margins are now 15.2%, with net cash and 28% growth in their non-cyclical Government Issues activities. James Fisher profits increased 31% with net debt slashed. At Capita, net debt was also massively reduced and profit before tax rose 22.2%. Funding Circle sales grew 23% and achieved its first ever profit. Restore profits grew 14%, announced a value enhancing acquisition and yet remains on an estimated PE of 10x. With much elbow grease applied, we were delighted that the renamed Chesterfield Special Cylinders (formerly Pressure Technologies Plc) was able to announce a maiden contract win with General Dynamics Electric Boat for the US submarine programme and an important hydrogen related project win, as Government 'HAR' programs to kick-start Hydrogen infrastructure commence.

A few holdings with exposure to negative economic sentiment were weak, in particular industrials such as Flowtech Fluidpower and Trifast and also advertising exposed STV. We expect self-help at the former two and the pivot to Studios in the latter, to offset these sensitivities in the years ahead. Facilities by ADF updated again on difficult end markets, however we were pleased our engagement initiatives have resulted in the appointment of the highly experienced Russell Down as Chairman and Mark Adams as NED. Van Elle also flagged difficult market conditions, but in both instances, namely TV & Film content production and UK infrastructure spend, we are highly confident strong future end-market growth will reassert itself.

In light of excellent financial results, we were delighted to have had the opportunity to add further to existing holdings on short term weakness given the upside we've identified to intrinsic value. We increased the size of each investment in Restore, Capita, STV, Van Elle and Mercia Asset Management by over a third. We also started building one new investment during the period. We realised some of our gains in Funding Circle, yet remain optimistic on its future growth. 'Uncertainty' has risen since period end, impacting many investors' approaches. In contrast we have a lot of confidence further progress will be demonstrated across the portfolio in the year ahead and discounts to fair value will narrow.

Key Risk Considerations

Past performance is not a reliable indicator of current or future performance, and investors may not get back the original amount invested. Investment in RKW may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money within 5 years. Shares of RKW may trade at a discount or a premium to Net Asset Value ("NAV") for a variety of reasons. On a sale you could realise less than the NAV and less than you initially invested. RKW's portfolio is focused towards small companies; these may involve a higher degree of risk than larger sized companies.
