The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets.

The manufacturer has classified this product as 3 out of 7, which is a medium risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium level.

Be aware of currency risk. If you are a non-UK investor, you will receive payments in a different currency, so the final returns you will get depend on the exchange rate between the two currencies. This risk is not considered in the indicator shown above.

You can compare them with the scenarios of other products. The scenarios presented are an estimate of future performance based on evidence from the past on how the value of this investment varies, and are not an exact indicator. They are based on share price total return with dividends reinvested. What you get will vary depending on how the Company's underlying investments perform, how the overall market performs and how long you keep the investment. The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances, and it does not take into account the situation where the Company is not able to pay you on its liquidation.

What happens if AVI Global Trust plc is unable to repay?

The Company is a closed-end investment trust company listed on the London Stock Exchange and therefore investors will be able to close their investments on each working day. As a shareholder of AVI Global Trust plc you would not be able to make a claim to the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (or equivalent overseas authorities in the case of non-UK shareholders) in the event that the company is unable to pay out.
