What are the risks and what could I get in return?

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because the Company is not able to pay you.

The risk indicator assumes you keep the product for at least 5 years. The actual risk can vary significantly. The value of investments and the income from them can go down as well as up, and you may get back less than you invested.

We have classified this product as 4, which is a medium risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium level, and poor market conditions could impact the amount you could get back.

If the product is not held for the recommended holding period, the potential risk may be significantly higher than the one shown above.

This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment.

The Company borrows in order to purchase assets, and this may magnify gains or losses. Shares in the Company may trade at a discount to their Net Asset Value, which may adversely affect the value of your investment, particularly when you come to sell your shares.

The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances, and it does not take into account the situation where we are not able to pay you. Further information on risks not covered in the risk indicator are detailed in the Company's Annual Report available in the literature library on www.invtrusts.co.uk.

The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself, where applicable, but may not include all the costs that you pay to your adviser or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back.
