GENERAL INFORMATION

Company profile

Artemis is a leading UK-based fund manager, offering a range of funds which invest in the UK, Europe, the US and around the world.

As a dedicated, active investment house, we specialise in investment management for both retail and institutional investors across Europe.

Independent and owner-managed, Artemis opened for business in 1997. Its aim was, and still is, exemplary investment performance and client service. All Artemis' staff share these two precepts – and the same flair and enthusiasm for fund management.

The firm now manages some £25.4 billion* across a range of funds, an investment trust and both pooled and segregated institutional portfolios.

Our managers invest in their own and their colleagues' funds. This has been a basic tenet of the Artemis approach since the firm started. It means that interests of our fund managers are directly aligned with those of our investors.

RISK AND REWARD PROFILE

- The fund is in the category shown due to historic volatility (how much and how quickly the value of shares in the fund may have risen and fallen in the past due to movements in markets, currencies and interest rates). It may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the fund.
- The risk category has been calculated using historic data and may not be a reliable indicator of the fund's future risk profile.
- A risk indicator of "1" does not mean that the investment is "risk free".

The risk indicator may not fully take into account the following risks and the following may affect fund performance:

- Market volatility risk: The value of the fund and any income from it can fall or rise because of movements in stock markets, currencies and interest rates, each of which can move irrationally and be affected unpredictably by diverse factors, including political and economic events.
- Currency risk: The fund's assets may be priced in currencies other than the fund base currency. Changes in currency exchange rates can therefore affect the fund's value.
- Emerging markets risk: Compared to more established economies, investments in emerging markets may be subject to greater volatility due to differences in generally accepted accounting principles, less governed standards or from economic or political instability. Under certain market conditions assets may be difficult to sell.

There was no change to the risk indicator in the six months ended 7 October 2024.

Please refer to the fund's prospectus for full details of these and other risks which are applicable to this fund.

OTHER INFORMATION

Prospectus

Copies of the most recent Prospectus are available free of charge from the manager at the address on page 5.

Tax information reporting

UK tax legislation requires fund managers to provide information to HM Revenue & Customs ('HMRC') on certain investors who purchase units in unit trusts. Accordingly, the fund may have to provide information annually to HMRC on the tax residencies of those unitholders that are tax resident outwith the UK, in those countries that have signed up to the OECD's ('Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development') Common Reporting Standard for Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information (the 'Common Reporting Standard'), or the United States (under the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act, 'FATCA').

All new unitholders that invest in the fund must complete a certification form as part of the application form. Existing unitholders may also be contacted by the Registrar should any extra information be needed to correctly determine their tax residence. Failure to provide this information may result in the account being reported to HMRC.

For further information, please see HMRC's Quick Guide: Automatic Exchange of Information – information for account holders: gov.uk/government/publications/exchange-of-information-account-holders.

Value assessment

Artemis Fund Managers Limited (AFML) has conducted a detailed assessment of whether its funds are providing value to unitholders. AFML must publish publicly, on an annual basis, a statement setting out a summary of the outcome of the process and whether or not AFML believes the payments out of the scheme property are justified in the context of the overall value delivered to unitholders. Composite reports on Assessment of Value have been published via the website artemisfunds.com.

Taskforce for Climate-Related Financial Disclosures ("TCFD")

In accordance with the FCA's requirements under the Environmental, Social and Governance Sourcebook, Artemis is required to publish disclosures consistent with the Taskforce on Climate-Related Financial Disclosures ("TCFD") for the period 1 January 2023 to 31 December 2023. ## INVESTMENT REVIEW

Over the six months under review, global equity markets were volatile, driven by shifts in monetary policy, changing economic data, and geopolitical dynamics. The US Federal Reserve started a rate-cutting cycle with a 50-basis point reduction in September. This was in response to more benign inflation figures and also to support a labour market that was starting to show signs of weakness. Earlier in the period, the Bank of Japan announced a 25bps rate hike which called into question the Yen 'carry trade', where investors borrow in a lower-yielding currency (the yen) and invest in a higher-yielding currency. The unwind caused significant volatility in Japanese equity markets as well as across the globe. We do not feel these effects are yet fully understood or realised.

China's equity markets were lifted in September by the announcement of significant stimulus. This was taken as a sign that the government is willing to act as a 'back stop' for markets. Investor sentiment improved towards China, although the markets remain fixated on the exact nature of the support.

Geopolitical tensions, particularly the ongoing Middle East conflict and the Russia-Ukraine war, added to the instability. Meanwhile, commodity markets saw varied performance. Precious metals like gold rose due to geopolitical risks and lower Treasury yields, while crude oil prices dropped on concerns over global supply.

Markets

In this environment, the MSCI All Country World Index returned 5.7% over the six months. In local currency terms, emerging markets were the standout performer, largely driven by Chinese equities. The US, as usual, remained strong. From a sector perspective, utilities were the best performer, followed by real estate, and IT. The energy sector lagged.

Fund performance

Over the period the fund underperformed the index, returning 4.4%*. From a country perspective, our underweight to the US, and in particular our lack of exposure to Apple and Tesla, hurt performance. Weakness was also felt in our holdings in Toyota Tsusho (Japan, industrial) and Eramet (France, mining) as global industrial activity remained subdued.

To offset this weakness, we had strong contribution from our Chinese holdings which were supported by the above-mentioned stimulus announcements. China CITIC Bank, CGN Power, and China Construction Bank did particularly well. We continue to see the opportunity in China to be elevated. Outside of China, Britvic (UK, beverages) was our top contributor, followed by another UK stock, Imperial Brands (tobacco).

It is worth noting that despite our significant underweight to the US, year-to-date the fund remains ahead of the index and the peer group, with the fund returning 13.7% vs 12.8% index and 9.0% IA Global average.

Activity

Buys:

- US Large cap: NVIDIA, Alphabet.
- Healthcare: HCA, Pfizer, Tenet

Sells:

- Insurance: Hartford, PICC Property & Casualty, Chubb
- Consumer: Cencora, Associated British Foods

The changes over the period leave the fund's high-level characteristics unchanged. It is trading on a significant valuation discount to the market while maintaining attractive growth and income characteristics. At a regional level, little has changed. We remain heavily overweight to emerging markets and Europe, with a substantial underweight to the US (48% fund vs. 67% index). At a sector level we remain overweight to banks, food & beverages and insurance. Our main underweights are to technology, financial services, and industrial goods.

While the high-level features of the fund remain the same, we have cut our insurance overweight, using the proceeds to reduce our underweight position in technology and healthcare. Both areas scoring well according to SmartGARP.

The fund is tilted towards value, yet with attractive growth and quality metrics

As mentioned, the high-level features of the fund are still the same. We continue to offer a fund that is much cheaper than the market, but has similar growth characteristics, lower debt, and pays a higher dividend. We believe the fund to be not only a core global equity holding, but also an attractive addition to portfolios as a diversifier away from some of the higher-growth areas of the market that investors remain concentrated in.

Our focus on fundamentals continues

We continue to focus on the fundamental performance of businesses and where that fundamental performance is not yet fully reflected in the share price. As we move through these volatile periods, distortions occur in equity markets caused by short termism. A strategy that has a longer-term time horizon, and one that is designed to profit from these biases should stand the test of time.

Past performance is not a guide to the future.

* Source: Artemis, class I accumulation GBP. All figures show total returns with dividends and/or income reinvested, net of all charges. Performance does not take account of any costs incurred when investors buy or sell the fund. Returns may vary as a result of currency fluctuations if the investor's currency is different to that of the class. This class may have charges or a hedging approach different from those in the IA sector benchmark.

Our views on China

We have held a large position in China for some time because it is home to a plethora of businesses displaying attractive fundamentals that trade at deeply discounted valuations. This has required a good deal of patience, but we feel the recent policy announcements by the government should reward us for having conviction in our process and perhaps differentiate us from our peers who by and large have been absent from the country.
