Risks

Equity risk: Equities (also known as shares) can lose value rapidly and typically involve higher risks than bonds.
 Counterparty risk: counterparties on trades may default or not comply with contractual obligations resulting in loss.
 Exchange rate risk: the value of investments may be impacted by changes in the exchange rates of currencies.
 Derivatives risk: derivatives can be highly sensitive to changes in the value of the asset on which they are based which can increase the size of losses and gains.
 Liquidity risk: securities may become more difficult to sell or sell at a desired price during difficult market conditions.
 Emerging market risk: investments in emerging markets can be at greater risk of loss than in developed markets.
 The pricing of shares in the Fund is contingent upon the pricing of shares in the Master being done accurately and in a timely manner.
 The issue and redemption of shares in the Fund is contingent on dealing requests in the Master being accepted.
 This share class (mdist) may make monthly, gross-of-fee distributions. As a consequence, in addition to income, this share class may also distribute capital. This can have negative tax consequences for investors in some jurisdictions. Investors should seek their own tax advice.
