Key themes

- COVID-19 took hold in Asia and spread worldwide, the restrictions introduced impacted the global economy and bulk commodity markets

- Consolidated EBITDA reached $1,073m, EBITDA margin declined YoY to 21.5%
- The decline was primarily attributable to lower steel, vanadium and coal product sales prices, as well as lower sales of tubular and flat-rolled steel products resulting from weakening market demand in North America
- Cost-cutting and productivity improvement initiatives combined with customer focus efforts generated a total EBITDA effect of $251m

- CAPEX amounted to $337m vs $309m in H1 2019
- Stable positive FCF of $315m despite market headwinds
- Net debt increased slightly to $3,733m, net leverage reached 1.7x
- An interim dividend of $0.20 per share, totaling c.$291.37m was recommended by the BoD on 5 August 2020

Safety is a top priority

- We remain committed to having zero fatal accidents at our sites and target to reach LTIFR level of less than one
- The main focus is a project to enhance risk management, which is being rolled out across all divisions
- EVRAZ recorded zero fatalities, largely due to the sustained efforts to engage employees in risk identification and mitigation

- On the global steel market, throughout H1 2020, prices continued to slide, primarily due to the spread of COVID-19 worldwide
- In March, the coronavirus continued to spread, leading to the lockdown of several key markets in Southeast Asia (Philippines, Thailand, Indonesia and others). In early May, as several countries eased lockdown restrictions and market conditions improved, the trend reversed and prices regained part of their losses
- To hedge against the risk of production disruptions, EVRAZ extended the order book for semi-finished products with overseas customers where possible
- EVRAZ remained closely focused on its operations, including logistics, supply and technological processes. Despite 242 confirmed COVID-19 cases among employees as of 30 June 2020, EVRAZ faced no significant issues with the production or supply of raw materials and other goods. Shipments continued, and raw material deliveries to enterprises were stable
- COVID-19 has had little effect on EVRAZ' liquidity situation. Despite the negative market trends, operations and sales have continued to generate sufficient operating cash flow, while EVRAZ has proactively addressed its upcoming obligations and maintained a strong liquidity position
- In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, EVRAZ has introduced additional safety measures to protect its people and ensure continued operations. EVRAZ has undertaken additional measures aimed at supporting the wellbeing and mental health of its employees during the pandemic
- Since the beginning of the COVID-19 pandemic, EVRAZ has allocated more than RUB400m ($5.8m) as of 30 June 2020 to ensure safe working conditions for employees, as well as to support medical and pre-school institutions in local communities
